Edgardo Ramos, U.S.D.J.Dated: Sept. 26, 2012
White Plains, New YorkRe: United States v. Christian, et al, 12 Cr. 626 (ER)
My Client: Glenn Thomas

Dear Judge Ramos:

I am on the Court's CJA capital panel. On September 10, 2012, I was called by chambers and asked to undertake the representation of Glenn Thomas in the above matter under the Criminal Justice Act. Last Thursday, September 20th, I was formally appointed by Your Honor to represent Mr. Thomas. Mr. Thomas is one of six death eligible defendants charged in the recently filed indictment. I am advised by the CJA Clerk's Office that Court authorization is required in order to obtain compensation at the CJA rate for capital cases, presently set at $178/hour, rather than the regular CJA rates. I am writing to request that the Court authorize (nunc pro tunc to September 10, 2012) compensation to appointed counsel in this death penalty eligible case at the maximum statutory rate, presently set at $178.00/hour, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3005.

I further request the Court's permission to file interim vouchers on a not more than once every three months basis.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.
